

The ECMC Chair in Islamic Studies Invites You to a Lecture Series Islam in Contemporary Society

Dr. Mumtaz Ahmad

Friday, April 3, 2009

7:00 - 8:30 p.m., F104, Augustana Campus, 4901 - 46 Avenue, Camrose

Religious Formation, Identity and Politics

On the Boundary Between Pakistan and India

Monday, April 6, 2009

12 noon, Lecture Theater N-102, The King's University College, 9125 - 50 Street, Edmonton

Descent into Chaos: Pakistan & India in the Wake of the Mumbai Attacks

Monday, April 6, 2009

7 p.m., Telus Bldg, Room 150, University of Alberta, Edmonton

Descent into Chaos: Pakistan & India in the Wake of the Mumbai Attacks

Dr. Mumtaz Ahmad is Professor of Political Science at Hampton University in Virginia, U.S.A., and the Executive Director of the Iqbal International Institute for Research & Dialogue, International Islamic University, Islamabad. Dr. Ahmad is the current President of South Asian Muslim Studies Association (SAMSA), an affiliate of the Association of Asian Studies (AAS), and Vice-President of Center of Islam and Public Policy (CIPP), Washington, D.C. His areas of academic and research interests are: comparative politics of the Middle East and South Asia, the U.S. And the Islamic World; Islamic political thought and institutions; comparative politics of contemporary Islamic movements; politics and sociology of the madrassa education; and ethnicity and the state. Dr. Ahmad has published eight books, numerous book chapters, and encyclopedia and journal articles on politics of South Asia and the Middle East and the politics of Islamic resurgence. Dr. Ahmad has recently completed a 3-year extensive study of the madrassa education in Bangladesh and Pakistan.

Co-sponsored by Chester Ronning Centre for the Study of Religion and Public Life and The King's University College

Chester Ronning Centre for the Study of Religion and Public Life

Contact Professor Ibrahim Abu-Rabi 780.975.0339
aburabi@ualberta.ca

Contact David Goa 780.679.1104
david.goa@ualberta.ca
www.augustana.ualberta.ca/ronning

UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA
AUGUSTANA CAMPUS